QIM Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

Describe the various activities in the Institution for inculcating values for being responsible citizens as reflected in the Constitution of India within 200 words.

RESPONSE

The institution has been successful in integrating the aspects of Professional Ethics, Gender Equality, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability. The various courses rendered by the College cater to developing the values enshrined in the Constitution of India. The institution adheres to the constitutional principles of equality and fraternity. The UG and PG admissions are conducted through a single window system excepting different reservation quotas. All the stakeholders operate as an entity for the progress of the institution. Regular PTA Meetings ensure the smooth and democratic functioning.

The mentor – mentee system and the remedial coaching ensure individual attention of the students by the teachers. The gender sensitization programmes conducted in the college by the EOC and Women Cell caters in making the learning more effective and has relevance to the regional as well as national developmental requirements. Legal Awareness Classes are organised to make the students, especially female students aware of their legal rights

The value education courses rendered by the institution play an integral role in the all-round development of the students. One hour in every week is allotted for value education classes and timely evaluation is ascertained. The teachers of the college act as Presiding and Polling officers and play a key role in the smooth conduct of elections to the State and Central legislature. Therefore, the foundational principles of the college always ensure to the constitutional values.
